

Technologies and innovations advancing inclusive business in agriculture and food systems

Field visit

Friday, 02 December 2022

PROGRAMME (tentative)

09:00-10:00	Departure and travel from pick up point (TBC)
10:00-12:00	Visit 1: Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Delhi/Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) Presentations on the latest technological interventions in the agriculture sector  Visit 2: State of Art production facility Presentations on the latest technological interventions in the agriculture sector  During these visits, experts will share their experience and knowledge about the technology and the innovations that are driving the agricultural sector of India to become more inclusive and sustainable, as well as the market opportunities, public private partnerships and backward/forward integrations that have enhanced this.
12:00-12:30	Travel to Vigyan Bhawan Annexe
12:30-14:00	Networking Lunch
14:00-16:00	Roundtable consultation with key agriculture business stakeholders: Meet with representatives of successful start-ups and business, incubators/investors in the agriculture-food-dairy space and inclusive and women led cooperatives/companies to get insights into the Indian entrepreneurial ecosystem and their inclusive business models.  Learn about how the models were able to establish and maintain an advantage over their competitors, how they have been able to maintain business inclusivity and engage effectively with small farmers, what financing tools they used and had access to, and the challenges and obstacles they have faced to scale their business.
16:00-17:00	Return to pick up point (TBC)